Dear Sir/Ma

Application for the post of a Nurse

I'm writing to express my interest in applying for the post of a nurse in your prestigious hospital named God'sknot hospital.

My skills make me a great candidate for the position and I have a professional diploma in medical health technician from a prestigious school named POGIL College of Health Technology. I have the knowledge on how to monitor and control patient response to treatment, checking the vital sign of a patient, reassuring of patients, responding to relevant patient enquiries, maintaining stroke relationship with all patients and attending to patients in a friendly manner.

I am very enthusiastic about this job. I believe my qualifications and experience can make me an ideal candidate for the job. I am confident that I can help support your clinic mission and specific values. I look forward to hearing from you soon regarding an interview. Thank you for your time and consideration on this matter.

Yours Faithfully,
Olaleye Busayo.
